The Scala Coeli
Of the Gratious Queene ANNE
ARCVS FOEDERIS
Candore notabilis Ipsa
Nec Fato
Nec fraude
Illustrious Prince and Princesse be not sad
For her absence whose presence makes Heaven glad.
C. P. E. P.
L'una.
DIVI ACVS
The land of the Living
MOD ESTIA
CHARITAS
Scrupulis suis obumbratæ tibi; et sub pennis eius sperabis.
IACOBS STONE
ANNA her ANAGRAM keeps still one Nam
Plena Regalis pietatis Anna,
Indies Templum precibus fatigat,
Spiritus donec tenuis solutos
Clausit ocellos.
Jam Caput sanctum lapide in Jacobi
Nixa, Cælestis Scala surgit: undè
Scandit excelsas Anima hæc beata
Protenùs arces.
Sould by Geor. Humble in popes head ally, Lond
Devout Queene Anna did soe long frequent
The Temple, which she ply'd with orisons;
Vntill her wearied spirits being spent,
With pious plaints and right repentant groans,
To Jacobs stone her yeelding head shee bent,
A firme repose for her dissolued bones.
Hene rose the scale by which her Soule ascended
Confirmed by an Angel that de-scended.
A QVE ENE on Earth in Heaue nom the same
Spiritus ascendit: Corpus descendit in Vr
Debuit Vmbra sequi; Charta sed ista tenet